Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Monday 09 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunny spells. Showers breaking out, heavy in east this afternoon.

Today:
Many places dry, bright this morning with some sunshine. Staying cloudier in northwest with patchy rain, and scattered showers will continue over southern Scotland. Showers will break out more widely this afternoon, heavy, possibly thundery especially over eastern Scotland.

Tonight:
Showers becoming fewer with just the odd one continuing overnight. Staying rather cloudy in north with mist patches and clear periods further south. Another mild night with light winds.

Tuesday:
Cloudy, misty start in north otherwise a bright day with some sunshine. Also a lot of dry weather but scattered showers developing over eastern Scotland in the afternoon.

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Band of rain crossing from the west on Wednesday then a drier, brighter start to Thursday. Rather cloudy, showery weather arriving later on Thursday and Friday with stronger winds.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.